

Some are very specific, some are just casual.

Regular coffee, a bit strong, frothed milk
on the side, honey instead of sugar.

Foxy's Coffee

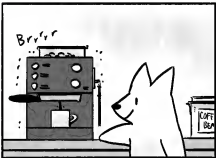

Some needs the caffeine to fully wake up.

Some enjoy the relaxing feeling.

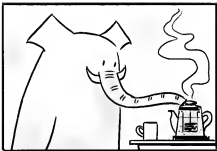

Some just like the smell.

Some don't drink coffee at all.

I like to observe my friends when we hang out,
and I remembered everyone's coffee habits.

It's really interesting how different everyone's tastes are.

BEFORE COFFEE

AFTER COFFEE

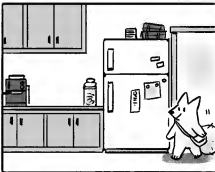

Ahhh...I'm alive.

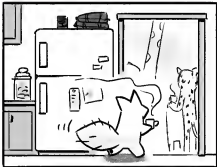

Every morning, I come to the pantry and make coffee for everyone at Roar Street Journal.

What I enjoy the most is not the taste of coffee,
but the joy of making the best coffee
for everyone to start their day.

One large vanilla caramel latte.
Oh, and do you have chocolate syrup? Thank you!

Some like it hot, some like it cold.

Some like it really strong.

Some like it light and sweet.

I learned how to make coffee from my mother,
who is very fond of this beverage.

Smells so good!

Want some?

Nah, I can't take the taste.

What's for me for today?

I found some unfinished marshmallows,
so I made marshmallow mocha!
